T/N: Fun facts! ...or not.
Shin-Yokohama Raumen Museum opened on March 6, 1994.
The museum is set up in a replica street-scape from 1958 Japan which is the year that instant ramen was invented.
The shops aren't there forever, they change every now and then so the museum can have ramen from different places.
Ganja, Ryu Shanghai, Kamome Shokudo, and Muku Zweite are all real shops that opened branches in Shin-Yokohama, but if JP Wikipedia is up to date only Ryu Shanghai (Yamagata / 2005~) and Muku Zweite (somewhere in Germany / 2014~) are still there. Ganja (Saitama) was from June 2010 to Sep. 2014 and Kamome Shokudo (Kessennuma) was from Feb. 2012 to April 2015.

Hana-chan in a jinbei.

T/N: Samue is similar to what Hana-chan is wearing, it's the work clothing that Japanese Zen Buddhist monks wear when engaged in samu.)
